

#7

EDUCATION DAY – May 7th, 2026

Sinai Health Auditorium

“Sustainability in infectious diseases, microbiology and infection prevention”

(3 of 3)

Dr. Shaqil Peermohamed MD, MPH, FRCPC

Clinical Associate Professor, UBC

Regional Medical Director, ASPIRES

Division of Infectious Diseases, Vancouver General Hospital

Dr. Shaqil Peermohamed is an Infectious Disease consultant with Vancouver Coastal Health and Regional Medical Director of ASPIRES (Antimicrobial Stewardship Programme: Innovation, Research, Education and Safety).

He completed his fellowship in Infectious Diseases at the University of Toronto and completed his Master of Public Health through the Harvard T.H. Chan School of Public Health, focusing on clinical effectiveness.

Dr. Peermohamed is also completing his Clinical Educator Diploma through the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada. In his spare time, Dr. Peermohamed enjoys tabletop games and escape rooms.